Speech Pathology Internship

BY: RACHEL ROBBINS
Organiztion Details

- Name of Organization: Guilford Elementary School
- Location: Columbia, MD
- Observed a Speech Pathologist: MA, CCC-SLP
Required to take notes on (during the session):

- Basic techniques and methods
- Any speech related disorders

Used critical thinking skills to assess why certain techniques were used to treat different disorders

Analyze how technology can aid in treatment of speech disorders
Who is this internship appropriate for?

- Only hearing and speech sciences majors and minors who have:
  - Completed HIPPA training (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act)
  - Obtained signed parental waivers
  - Been granted permission by school principal and school board officials to shadow speech pathologist
Personal Evaluation of Internship Experience

- Gained more experience on training my ear to listen for any abnormality of speech sounds
- Gained a personal connection to the field and a letter of recommendation for graduate school
- Learned what is like to give speech therapy in a classroom setting
- Learned speech pathologists can work in a variety of environments: hospital, hospice, school, private practice